Computing Year TWO	Z
	Name
Understand that algorithms are used on digital devices?
Understand that programs require precise instructions?
Create a simple algorithm (eg use a Bee-Bot)?
Test, amend and debug an existing algorithm?
Predict what the outcome of a simple program will be (logical reasoning)?
Create and manipulate digital content?
Organise, store and retrieve digital content?
E-safety and digital literacy
Use the internet and other technology safely and critically
<ul> <li>Understand the different methods of communication (eg email, online forums etc)?</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>Navigate the web to complete simple searches?</li> </ul>
Use the internet for learning and communicating with others, making choices when navigating through sites?
<ul> <li>Know that websites sometimes include pop-ups that take them away from the main site?</li> </ul>
Recognise advertising on websites and learn to ignore it?
Know that bookmarking is a way to find safe sites again quickly?
Begin to evaluate websites and know that everything on the internet is not true?
Send and receive email as a class?
Recognise what is personal information and keep it private
Know that personal information should not be shared online?
Recognise what is personal information and keep it private?
Use a password to access the secure network?
Does your child know what to do if they are concerned when they use the internet and other technology?
<ul> <li>Know they must tell a trusted adult immediately if anyone tries to meet me via the internet?</li> </ul>
Know what to do if they find something inappropriate online or something they are unsure of (including identifying people who can help; minimising screen; online reporting using school system etc)?
Recognise acceptable and unacceptable behaviour when using the internet and other technology?
Understand the need for rules to keep them safe??
Aware that people might use the internet and other technology to harm or upset							